DEDICATED TO

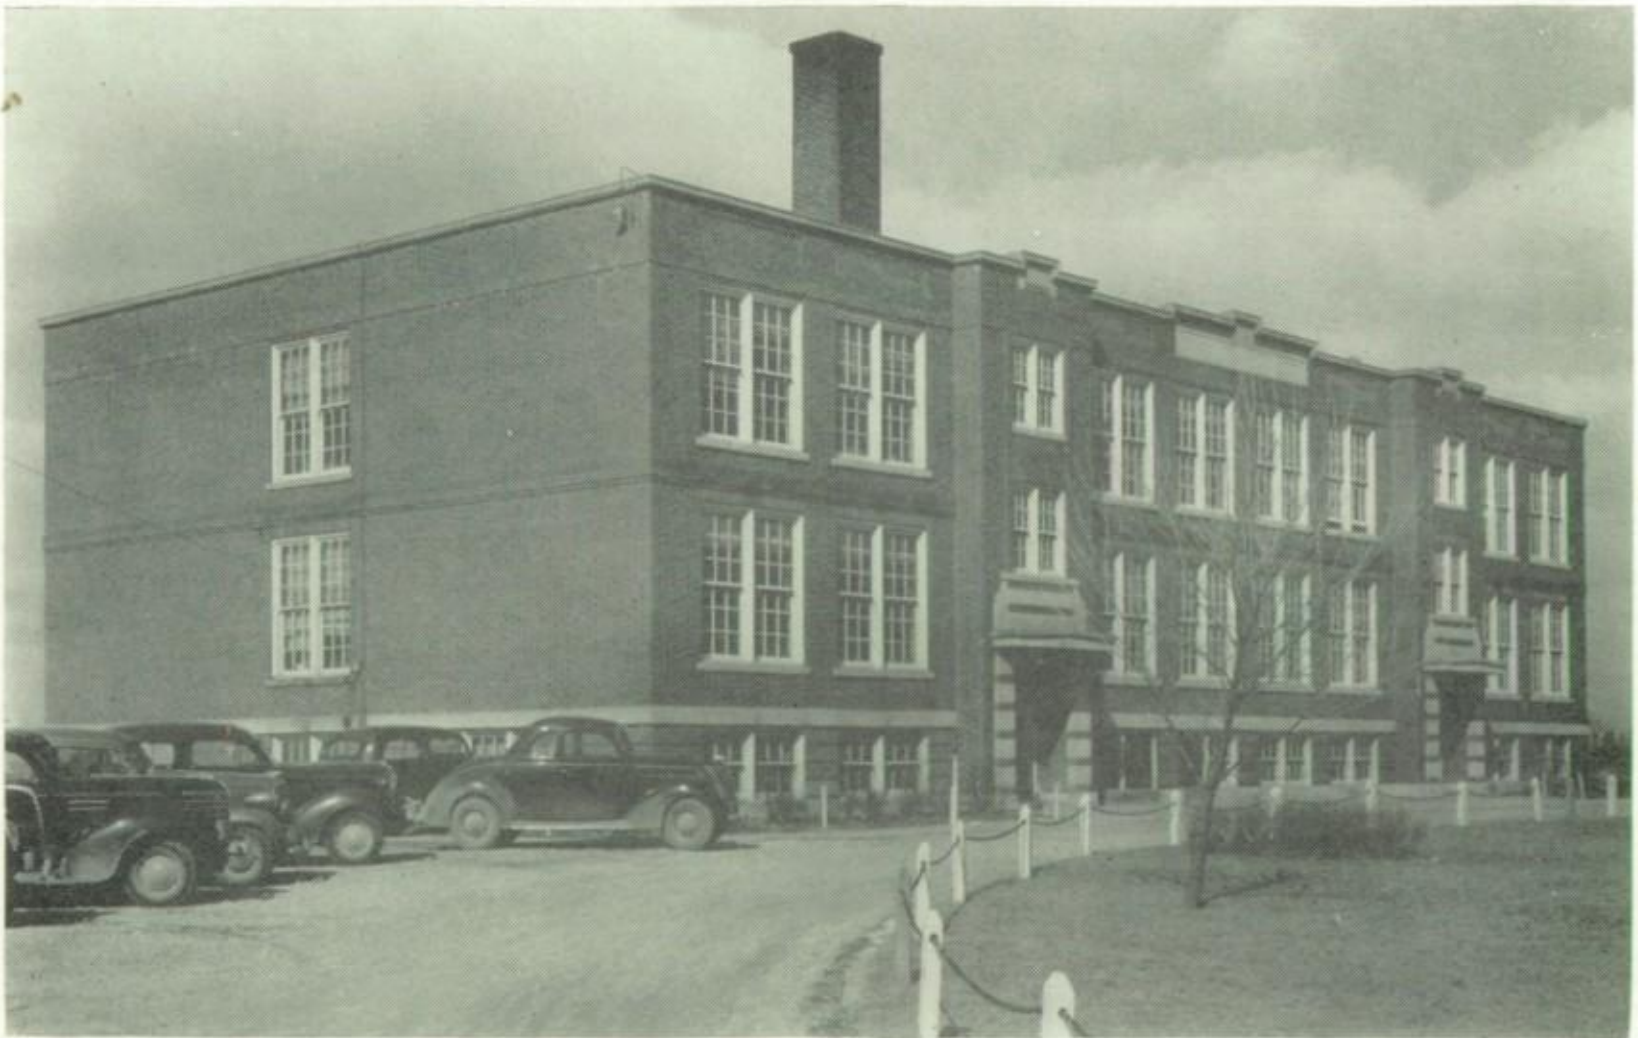

YOUTH OF AMERICA

In honor of American youth and what they mean in making the future of our country, we, the seniors of nineteen hundred and thirty-nine, wish to dedicate this, the seventeenth volume of the Liberty Bell.

ATTITUDES

- I. Human Relationships
- II. Mental Growth and Development
- III. Varied Interests
- IV. Fair Play and Physical Development
- V. Cooperation

W H Y

In order to have a sound and concrete foundation for our government of tomorrow, we must educate the youth of today. We believe a liberal education is the most ideal way to continue this function.

The proper idea to get the American youth idea across in the democracy and school this program may be used: I. Human Relationship, II. Mental Growth and Development, III. Varied Interests, IV. Fair Play and Physical Development and V. Cooperation.

So that we may overcome all the isms which are trying to take hold, we must have a strong American youth. When the other national governments have fallen to ruin we will retain a strong democracy only if our youth is educated and prepared to take their places in the world of tomorrow.

HUMAN

RELATIONSHIPS

The relationship among the class, each individual, and the teachers, is very definite. Each group or individual learns to cooperate with others in both duties and social activities. The various forms of work and pleasure make for desirable relations and better understandings among all concerned.

Left to Right: Paul Swisher, Ray Zeisloft, Harley Radebaugh, Victor Sink, Harry Bair.

THE SCHOOL BOARD

Our Board of Education is composed of well-qualified citizens who have been chosen by the community to be in charge of the general welfare of the school. It is their duty to select the faculty, decide on questions concerning the school, and attend to the financial business of the institution.

Their task is not an easy one and they have performed, and still are performing, their duties in an admirable manner, although they are not always given the credit which is justly due them.

At the January meeting they reorganized, electing Mr. Victor Sink as President, Mr. Harry Bair, Vice President, and Mr. Paul Swisher as Clerk. Mr. Sink replaced Mr. Harley Radebaugh, who was the former president. Mr. Ray Zeisloft is the other member of the board.

I. L. Conrad

IRVIN L. CONRAD

Superintendent

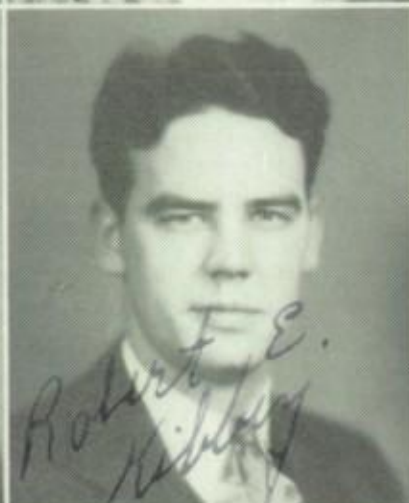

Physical Growth, Mental Development, Fair Play,—all the things mentioned in our yearbook depend on leadership of the right kind, and Mr. Conrad has given us just that. Taught when young to be independent of others, he has tried to teach us the same thing—to be able to stand on our own feet, and to face the world with confidence. He has helped us to make decisions and to choose our courses. Yet he has not been just a teacher, but a friend as well, winning friends everywhere with his pleasant manner and dry humor.

RALPH D. ALLOWAY

Principal

Brought up in an atmosphere of respect for superiors, he has been quick to notice the lax attitude of our students, and has tried to correct it. As a result he is always asking us to "act like ladies and gentlemen." Mr. Alloway is a good conversationalist—an interesting man with whom anyone can talk. He has been our football coach for the four years he has been here, and basketball coach for the last two. Whether we win or lose is always reflected in his spirit.

This body is constituted of those persons who are vitally interested in cooperation amongst the parents, teachers and pupils of the community for the purpose of promoting the general welfare of the school.

They have also made it possible for a religious education program in the school which has made its contribution to the moral and spiritual well-being of the children. In addition to this their cards and gifts of comfort and cheer have been greatly appreciated by the sick and bereaved of the community.

An active Parent and Teacher Association is an asset to any community and ours has helped to make our school one of which we are proud.

V A R I E D

INTERESTS

School is not all class room study. Much of school is the other interests which have been introduced. Glee clubs, basketball, football, Ag and Home Ec. clubs and many other such activities have helped make life at Liberty a pleasure rather than a monotony of hard work.

ANNUAL STAFF

A great deal of work is necessary to produce a school year book. Liberty Bell Staff was organized early in the year. Each member is responsible for his particular part in the book. Advertising was selected and pictures taken. The work and outline of the book was formulated with the help of Mr. Wollever of the Fort Wayne Engraving Company.

We the staff, wish to thank Mr. Conrad and Mr. Blazer for the fine help they gave toward making our book a success.

Members chosen for the annual staff were:

GRADE OPERETTA

The first six grades presented an operetta "In Quest of Santa Claus" on December 19th. Jane, a little girl who is anxious to find Santa, starts off in search of him. She expects help from the woodpeople, but she has not been a good girl, so the Spirits will not help her. After she shows kindness to some of the people the Spirits help her find her way. Jane loses her way and wanders into the cave of the Spirit of Selfishness, she is rescued by the Spirit of Love who helps her find Santa Claus.

Jane was played by Sara Hartman, and Santa Claus by Richard Payne. Others in the cast are: Kindness, Claribel Henry; Helpfulness, Jean Fry; Goodwill, Dorothy Mowrey; Unselfishness, Patricia Sink; Love, Colleen Van Meter; Wongaloo, Billy Bell; Captain, Leon Trout. Supporting the cast were other members of the grades in the choruses.

ORCHESTRA

The Liberty High School Orchestra under the direction of Miss Miller is less than one year old. The participants range from the sixth grade to the eleventh grade. Miss Miller says there is much talent in the musical line of our school, so they are hoping for the best in the future.

The orchestra has played at several social gatherings recently and has received much applause from the community audience. This is taking a great step into the future musical world, because it means that the members are far enough advanced in their special instrumental knowledge that they can contribute satisfactory evidence to the community listeners.

SENIOR OPERETTA

The Boys' and Girls' Clubs combined to produce the operetta "Jerry of Jericho Road" which was produced April 18th. The characters were as follows:

Uncle Pete—An old time westerner—Melvin Inbody
 Alan O'Day—Young owner of Feudal Rock ranch—Robert Ridge

 Amos Bank—An easterner—Howard Rayle
 Lettice Bank—His wife—Belva Powell
 Sandy Bank—Their daughter—Georgiana Swisher
 Hunter—A detective—Junior Bunn

Alan O'Day a wealthy Easterner, desires the hand of Sandy Bank in marriage. Sandy rejects him because her mother, Lettice Bank, so shamelessly favors the match on account of Alan's money. In an effort to forget Sandy, Alan goes west to his ranch, which he converts into a tourist camp.

Lettice Bank and her family follow Alan west and camp on some land adjoining Alan's ranch, which turns out to be some very valuable oil land owned by Geraldine Bank, a niece.

John Drayton, wishing to locate Jerry for the purpose of buying her land for a syndicate of which he is a member, hires Hunter, a detective, to assist him. When he finds that Hunter is cheating so as to get the land for himself, he fires him.

The girls have done quite well in their music this year. They received a rating of "Superior Minus" at the District Choral contests at Bluffton. This is one marking better than last year and we hope to improve it next year. The numbers used were "The Long Day Closes" by Arthur Sullivan and "The Old Woman and the Peddler" by H. G. Kinssella. The Glee Club also took part in the Musical Festival at Rawson.

During the school term many parties and activities were enjoyed. Among them were: F. F. A. and Home Economics party, fair exhibit, mother and daughter banquet, pheasant supper; they also attended various demonstrations in Findlay.

Pins were purchased by the club and plans are being made for the group to attend camp this summer.

The girls are requested to complete a project during the year. Each may choose her own project which must pertain to some phase of home economics work.

The motto of every sincere vocational agriculture student is:

Learning to do,
Doing to learn;
Earning to live,
Living to serve.

Many interesting meetings were held during the winter months.

They took interest in the fair exhibit; a trip to Columbus, a pest hunt with Van Buren, pheasant and rabbit supper, county judging at Columbus and an F. F. A. basketball team. A chile and oyster supper was held March 31. The proceeds went to help pay the dues for a summer camp.

Latin Club Newly Formed

This club, the youngest in the high school, is just newly organized under the sponsorship of Miss Harpst. It is composed of members interested in the intriguing stories of ancient Rome.

During the year, letters were exchanged with Latin students of other schools and with young people in South Africa. Booklets were made in which were placed a reproduction of one page from each of four text books. On these pages, all words which were derived from Latin were underscored. Several vocabulary contests were held throughout the year, with prizes going to the winners.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Religious Education was taught to Fourth, Fifth, and Sixth Grades, one hour each, once a week. The lessons consisted of stories of heroes, appreciation of pictures which are masterpieces of art, and poetry and songs connected with religion. The work included the history of the Bible, learning the books of the Bible, and the study of its passages such as the Ten Commandments, the Lord's Prayer, the Psalms and others of interest.

Each lesson was applied to problems of every day life.

SENIOR CLASS PLAYS

HE COULDN'T TAKE IT

"He Couldn't Take It," a farce in three acts, presented by the Senior Class on December 6, under the direction of Mr. McClintock.

The story deals with young Joe Nightingale who is left a widower by the untimely death of his wife. He is faced by the terror of having the same "bossy" mother-in-law once again, for in a moment of sympathy and grief, Joe practically promises Mrs. Hortense Pemberton, his former mother-in-law, that he would marry her other daughter, June. When he is alone and rational he realizes what a predicament he had got himself into for Mrs. Pemberton is the sort who "rules the roost." And to make it even worse, she has more daughters, which means that should anything happen to June, poor Joe might be expected to continue marrying into the Pemberton family, thereby having a "perpetual" mother-in-law. STRIKE THREE "Strike Three," a comedy in three acts was presented by the Senior class on May 16. The play was under the direction of Mr. McClintock.

Henry Dillon is a meek, mild-mannered little man who has never married, although he romanticizes a great deal about a fascinating creature of his youth, Barbara Saunders, who jilted him for another man. He lives in a small house, run by his orphaned niece, Iris March, whom he has adopted. Iris also works for the telephone company, in the capacity of private secretary to the irascible boss. Henry's next-door neighbor is Maggie Shannon, a spinster who has been in love with Henry for many years—a woman who is always looking after Henry's wants, hoping that some day he will forget Barbara Saunders and propose to her. Maggie is a seamstress, who has adopted her orphaned nephew, Michael, who is in love with Iris and also works for the telephone company, as a lineman. He has ambitions, however, to some day become a star professional baseball player, already showing signs of his possibilities with the local baseball team, sponsored by the telephone company.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

"WHERE'S MY MONEY?"

"Where's My Money," a modern comedy, was presented by the Junior class on March 21.

The story deals with Wallace Brindle who has lost his store and his money. His wife, Effie, who has a passion for raising prize-winning cows, offers to sell her livestock so that he can recoup his fortunes. Bertha Brindle, Wallace's sister, arrives to take charge of their house just as they are to leave for New York to negotiate a sale. Betty Brindle, their eldest daughter, arrives home from college to find Aunt Bertha laying down the law to her little sister, Madge.

Betty also discovers that her engagement to Rodney Banker has been announced in the local papers without her knowledge. She likes Rodney but she doesn't love him as she has fallen head over heels in love with Harmon Sands, a young radio crooner. Rodney, on the other hand, has fallen desperately in love with Marion Mohr who has moved to their little town two weeks ago. Both Betty and Rodney want to hide their love affairs from each other.

An interesting time was enjoyed by everyone and even Aunt Bertha was lucky enough to find herself a man.

INTRAMURALS

The Senior girls defeated the Sophomore girls 30-15 to win the class championship for the second successive year. They had previously defeated the Freshmen 22-13. Previous to the Senior game the Sophomores had defeated the Juniors 23-22.

The Junior boys were declared champions in their division by defeating the Sophomore boys 24-7. They won the right of playing in the finals by defeating the Freshmen 35-13. The Sophomore boys reached the finals by defeating the Seniors 23-20.

Congratulations Senior girls and Junior boys.

The fifth and sixth grades experienced their first competitive basketball this past year. Many of the boys never handled a basketball before, but their eagerness to participate, their willingness to follow instructions, and above all, their will to win brands them as a team of the future that will bear watching.

GEORGIANA SWISHER
Toby as a senior forward was a good substitute. Although she did not play enough quarters to earn a letter she received a service letter for her loyalty.

JANE MOORHEAD
Jane has received a letter for the past two years and was a member of the squad for three. As a senior forward she made the most points for our team.

NINA FLICK
Although she didn't receive a suit on the regular team, Nina, who is a senior guard, received a service letter for her loyalty.

MISS MOORHEAD
MR. CONRAD

Mr. Conrad as the coach and Miss Moorhead as assistant have ably guided and directed our girls' team. One of their greatest achievements is that they have taught the girls to be good losers as well as good winners. The number of girls remaining in basketball and keeping training rules proves their great respect for them.

MARGARET POWELL

Peg has been a guard on the team for three years and this year was elected captain. Peg is a senior, therefore we lose one of our most valuable players.

DELORES SCHOONOVER

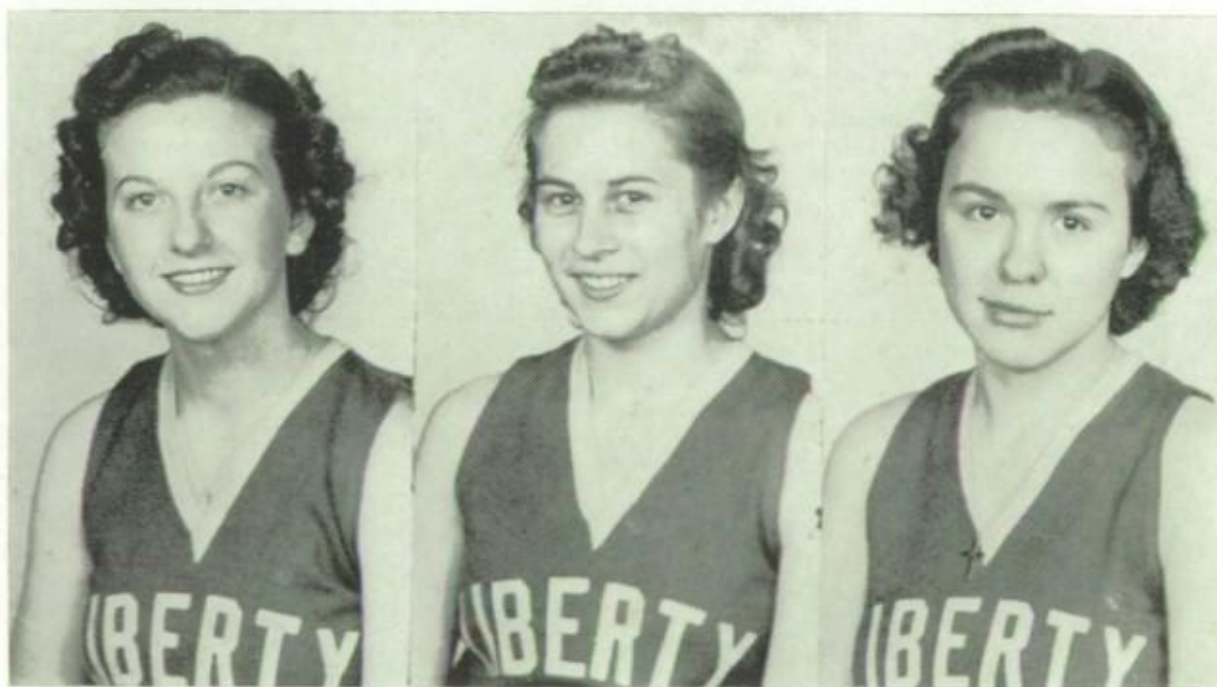

Schoony was a deserving forward but because of illness she was unable to complete the season. She graduates this year and received a service letter.

ALBERTA WINKLER

Bert was a senior forward that fitted in with the team very well. She was always ready to do her duty on the team.

KEITHA ZEISLOFT

Playing her first year as guard, Keitha made the first squad, and with Helen and Peg formed Liberty's defense. Keit is a junior, so will be here next year to continue her playing.

HELEN CLYMER

Fast and full of determination to win, Helen is a junior guard who won a letter last year and will be back next year to attempt to help win a championship for Liberty.

BELVA POWELL

With very little actual experience Belva still ranked very close to Jane as pointmaker for the team. She was a snappy senior forward.

DOROTHY COATS

An aggressive guard, was always ready to fight for the team. She received a letter for the service to the team and will be greatly missed next year.

Front row: Jane Moffitt, Georgiana Swisher, Delores Schoonover, Belva Powell, Alberta Winkler, Helen May, Claudice Emahiser, Dorothy Coats.
Second row: Mr. Conrad, Ruth Hartman, Mary Coats, Keitha Zeisloft, Margaret Powell, Jane Moorhead, Helen Clymer, Edith Powell, Viola Thompson, Mgr.; Miss Moorhead, Ass't Coach.

CLAUDICE EMAHISER

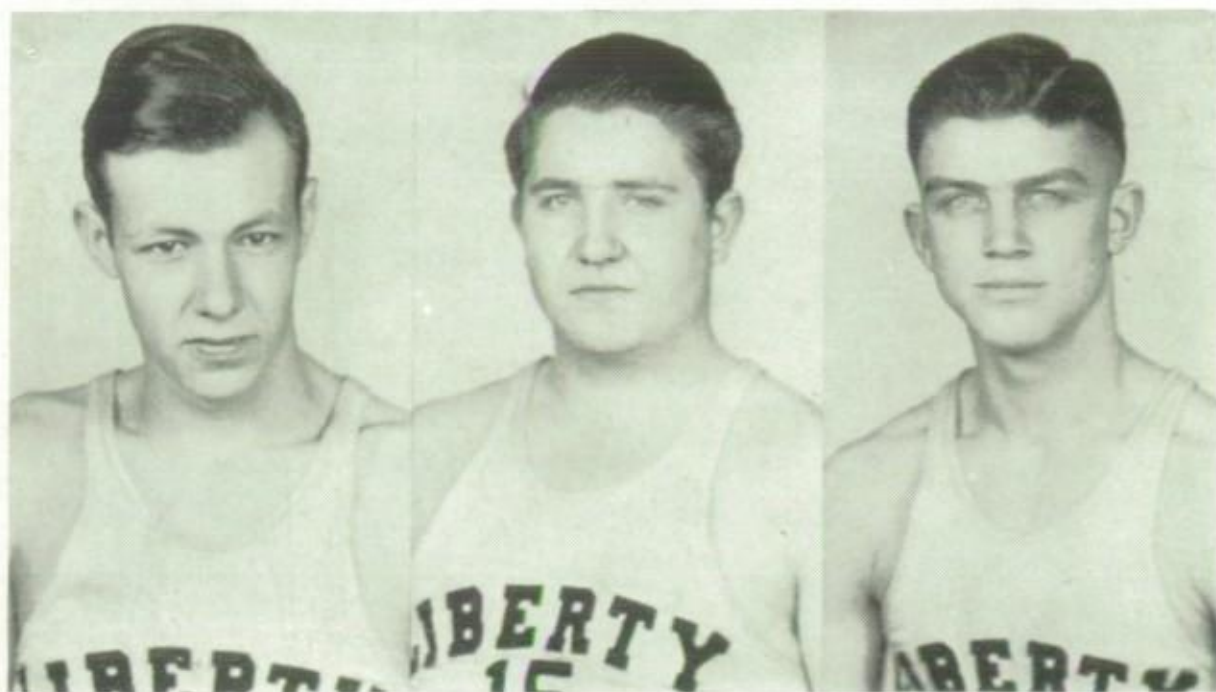

Claudice was a fast guard, and was always ready to do her bit on the team for L. H. S. She is a senior and received a service letter.

BETTY BABCOCK

Betty is a senior forward, was on the squad only a few times, she received a service letter for her loyalty.

JANE MOFFITT

Jane a senior guard, was a part-time member of the squad. She received a service letter for her determination to do her part for Liberty.

MAX WEST

Max was the biggest man on the squad but despite that he handled himself well.

RICHARD PEPPLER

Dick's main point was defense and he usually had his man tied up.

RAYMOND POWELL

"Diz" was a fine, hard-working forward whom the team could depend upon. He bore the team's load in many a game. It will be very hard to fill his place on the team.

COACH ALLOWAY

Mr. Alloway worked very diligently with the boys' basketball team this year. They proved in a number of games that his work was not in vain.

WILLIAM COONTZ

Bill was one of the finest offensive boys in the county. He supplied most of our scoring punch when most needed. He was elected captain and he still has another year.

CARL ST. CLAIR

Carl performed remarkably as a reserve. His defensive ability aided in breaking up many opposing last minute rallies.

HOWARD RAYLE

Howard's clean, aggressiveness helped to pull the team out of many tough spots. He alternated as forward and guard and proved to be a most efficient ball player.

CHARLES WEST

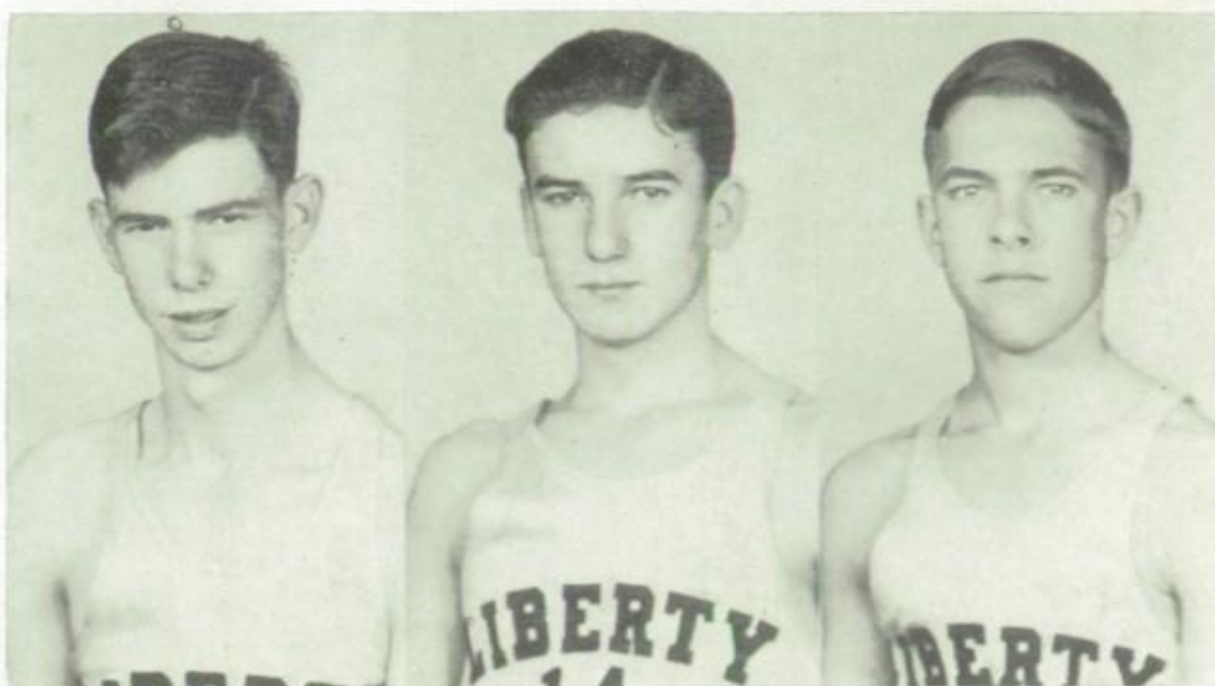

Charlie was a fast, hard-working guard and constantly on the go. His ball-handling aided the success of many of the squad's plays. The boys voted him the most valuable man on the team.

LEROY KUHLMAN

Leroy is a Junior and as a result of his performances this season we are expecting much in the future.

DON KRAUSS

Don was handicapped by size and did not play regularly. In games in which he participated his aggressive play bespoke of big things for him.

First row: Junior Zuercher, Jack West, Don Krauss, Harvey Thomas, Albert Wiler, Calvin Rettig.
 Second row: Roy Hartman, Mgr.; David Powell, Howard Rayle, Don McClain, Don Huffman, James Schey, Richard Pepple, Mr. Alloway, Coach.
 Third row: Melvin Inbody, Ass't Mgr.; Carl St. Clair, Robert Ridge, Eugene Porter, Robert Briggs, Eugene Bright, Raymond Powell.

Farm Building Plans

We are headquarters in this territory for good, proven, economical building plans for every kind of farm structure.

Good design and low cost have a direct bearing on farm profits—buildings are the machinery of the farm plant.

Good profitable lumber buildings are the composite of building and farming experience. We know how to produce such buildings. Our plans cost farm builders in this community nothing.

Come in—look them over—you'll be under no obligation.

Success is not what you get, but what you contribute; not what you do, but what you are becoming by doing it.

Prof. (after handing out test papers): "Are there any comments or questions?"

Freshman: "Yes Sir. I certainly don't think I deserve zero today."

Prof.: "I don't either, Mr. Guppy, but it is the lowest mark I am permitted to give any member of this class."
